—Tom Curry's name appears, this week, as a candidate for the office of recorder. He has been a resident of the county all of his life, and has been an active worker in the Republican ranks for the last twenty years. Mr. Curry has never been a candidate before for any office, and will appreciate any favors that his friends may render him.

—The condition of crops in Kansas is not so good as it was some time ago. The condition of the crops in this county is not so good as it was some time ago. The condition of the crops in this county is not so good as it was some time ago.

—Mrs. Orinda C. Sweetman, the venerable mother of Mrs. Hollis Campbell and S. T. Sweetman, died at the home of her daughter, near this city on July 29th, 1894, at the advanced age of 92 years having been born October 25, 1802. She was a devout Christian, having been a member of the Episcopal church for over a half century. She was a widow for many years, and was survived by her son, S. T. Sweetman, and her daughter, Mrs. Campbell. Her remains were laid to rest in the cemetery in this city, the funeral services being conducted by Rev. F. W. Fiegebaum, of the German M. E. church, on Monday last, July 30th, 1894.

—When W. R. Hoffman, ex city attorney, went to bed on Tuesday night at his home at 916 Water street he was the possessor of a pair of shoes and a nice black coat and vest which on awakening yesterday morning he found had disappeared. His curiosity was aroused, and on investigation he found that a screen window had been removed, the lock on the sash broken and some hold burglar had been making free with his premises. No other articles are missing so far as known and Mr. Hoffman still wears his watch which was in a middle room. He thinks that his getting up about 2 o'clock frightened the burglar or else they knew the watch and didn't want it. Mr. Hoffman lives next door to John Bruce, who had a large trunk stolen from him some time ago by a colored man on Second street. —St. Joseph Herald, July 25.

—Silver thimbles at Fiegebaum's.

—Parties desiring premium lists of the Maitland fair can secure them by calling at this office.

—H. R. Price and family are now occupying their new residence in the north eastern part of town.

—By the way, do you need your watch, clock or jewelry repaired? Fiegebaum does the work, try him.

—James B. Payne has removed his saw mill from near Joe Comer's place, and is now located near Forbes.

—Produce taken in exchange for groceries, hardware or anything in our store. Call on Pierce & Co, New Point, Mo.

—Get ready to help the colored folks celebrate Saturday, August 4. Arrangements are being made for a whooping big time.

—John Doff, of Atchison county, says that Westboro in that county has the best base ball team in Northwest Missouri.

—We congratulate Pa and Mamma J. A. Kloppe, of Forbes, on the arrival at their home on the 20th ult. of a sweet girl baby.

—If you are thinking of painting your house, barn, buggy or wagon, it will pay you to call on Kelly & Donovan, New Point.

—The latest designs and patterns in wall paper can be found at J. C. Philbrick's drug store. All new and the lowest prices.

—Mrs. D. E. Bennett will serve ice cream at her home on Aug. 4 for the crowd, and also at Moore & Seeman's grocery store.

—230 thoroughbred Poland China pigs for sale, a large number eligible to record. Kentish Bros, five miles north of Mound City.

—And still they come Jim C. Morris buys an Aermotor gasvaporized steel mill and 40-foot tower of T. L. Price this week. The Aermotor takes the cake.

—The Horticultural society will take into consideration the subject of an exhibit of fruits and vegetables at its next meeting, August 11, at 2 o'clock p. m.

—I make a specialty of good goods, fine buggies and harness, work and buggy, doubled and single. Everything fully warranted as represented.

—Tom Kyeer claims the honor of having beaten the record in threshing, having in a seven-hour run, one day last week, threshed out 156 bushels of oats. This certainly knocks the "common" as far as anything we have heard of in this country.

—R. W. Thomas, veterinary surgeon, late of the Chicago Veterinary college, is now located in Mound City, and has his office at McRoberts & Co's drug store. He will answer all calls, day or night. Prompt attention given all calls by mail or telegram.

—Leman West, of Hickory township, is back from an extended visit to his farm in Western Nebraska. He reports that the crop prospects in that section of the state are excellent, and that the outlook for the farmers in that section is encouraging indeed.

—Rev. Alderman has accepted a call to Weston, Mo. We regret to lose a thoroughly devoted christian gentleman from our city, and feel that he has done this church here much good and hope that the gift of every good and perfect gift may ever watch over him and his.

—The celebrated, old reliable, light running Peter Schuttler wagon has been made over 51 years and the celebrated Newton wagon over 43 years. They are not cheap wagons sold at a fancy price, but much by the best. It is always the cheapest. H. C. SCHMIDT, Oregon, Mo.

—On Thursday last St. Joseph was again visited by a destructive fire. The buildings and stock of the W. D. Bennett Lumber company and every building on the half block west of the lumber yard together with nearly all their contents, were destroyed. The loss will reach $100,000.

—On Saturday, 4th inst., the Democracy of this county held their primaries to select delegates to attend a convention at Craig on the 7th to select delegates to the congressional convention which meets in Maryville on the 16th inst. BASE BALL FOR ALL Arrangements have been completed for a game on this day between the "Oregon Canning Company," of this city, and the "Simpsons," of St. Joseph, the strongest amateur club of that city.

Come and help us celebrate; we want you to see how we are advancing and progressing. This invitation is cordially extended to

EVERYBODY!

P. J. ROBINSON, Chairman of the Day.

Fitts offers 167 pairs of Ladies' Half Shoes at $1.00 a pair. They consist of Cloth Tops, colors, Tan, Bright Dongolas, Etc. The former prices were $1.25, $1.50, $1.75 and $1.93. This is no fake. A genuine slaughter. Come in and see the goods.

If you enjoy dancing go to Sterrett's opera house, Aug. 4.
Hair ornaments, silver, nigree and shell, at Fiegebaum's.

Pierce & Co., of New Point, will take produce in exchange for goods.
We are selling points, ois and white lead at cost. Kelly & Donovan, New Point.

See those new styles of ladies' watch chains; they are the latest. At Fiegebaum's.

The W. C. T. U. convention for the fifth district is announced for Sept. 6-7, at Maitland.

Miss Cora Hostetter has returned from her extended visit with White Cloud friends.

The Simpsons, of St. Joseph, will cross with the Oregon Canning Company, Aug. 4.

The Missouri State Sabbath School convention meets at Calicothe this year, August 8-10.

Patronize Kelly & Donovan's drug store New Point, if you want prompt attention and low prices.

Go to Mrs. D. E. Bennett for ice cream. She will serve every day and evening during the season.

H. A. Byrles, a teacher from Fortescue, was taken suddenly ill Wednesday morning, but is now convalescing.

I have too many buggies and carriages; must sell, as now is the time. D. M. MARTIN.

Mrs. J. N. Zichman returned Wednesday morning from a two-weeks' visit with relatives and friends in Mound City.

Miss Alice Galt, of Savannah, returned to her home last week, after a few weeks' visit with her sister, Mrs. Dr. C. L. Evans.

Don't forget that N. F. Murray & Co. will sell you choice pear, plum, and cherry trees at 35 cents each, $4.00 per dozen or $25 per 100.

You will find that splendid pure cream ice cream, made by Mrs. D. E. Bennett on sale every day and evening at Moore & Seeman's.

There are still nearly 600,000 acres of land subject to homestead entry in the southwestern counties of Missouri, and much of it good land.

Ludwig Waggoner informs us that Bill Derry's wheat straw was so heavy that he did not have ground sufficient to stack it on, and had to rent from his neighbors.

C. P. Elliott, a farmer living on the Gordon farm, just north of Forest City, left for parts unknown, quite suddenly, about a week ago, leaving a number of unpaid bills.

There will be no preaching at the Presbyterian church next Sabbath evening, owing to the temperance mass meeting to be held at the M. E. church on that evening.

We bought 100 gross of Mason's best Fruit Jars which we want to sell. Pints, 50 cents; quarts, 55 cents; 15 gallons, 70 cents. One dozen in a box complete. MOORE & SEEMAN.

The buggies, harness and wagon I sell have proved themselves to be first-class, well made and of good material. Good reliable goods at reasonable prices in my motto.

Go and consult C. W. Lukens, dentist, at the Hotel Midland, in Mound City, next week, should you need anything in dental work. Will be there Monday, Tuesday, Wednesday, Thursday, Friday and Saturday, Aug. 6, 7, 8, 9, 10 and 11.

Miss Gertrude Bennett returned Wednesday from Maryville, Maitland and Hopkins where she has been visiting friends and relatives. She was accompanied by her cousin Miss Lulu McIntyre, of Hopkins, who will visit here a couple of weeks.

On next Friday, August 10th, the good people of the Woods district will give a festival for the enjoyment of all those who may wish to see the people of that district know full well how to entertain, and they will make it pleasant for all who may attend.

Robert Hensley will take his fine two-year old colt, Banco, to Maitland, next week, and put him in training for the running races at the fair, commencing Aug. 21 to 23 inclusive. Bob has a fine colt, and says he will show them a clean pair of heels in the half-mile dash.

List of letters remaining in the Mound City postoffice, week ending July 27, 1894: Late Doby, 2 Wm. Irwin, Miss Mary Gale, Annie Beckwith, Mrs. Rob Lucas, L. R. Jarons, Clay Marshall, W. J. Morris, H. C. Reese, W. H. Obery. When calling for these letters, please "advertise."

There was plenty of excitement on the corn pit Monday last. Reports of ruined crops caused the price to jump rapidly. There was an advance of nearly three cents on the market, closing at 40 1/2 cents, the top figure. Every condition was favorable to forcing down wheat and corn up.

Here of late considerable stock from Maitland is being shipped south, some going to Kansas City and a few loads of hogs to St. Joseph. For a number
